The IPEAT, Institut Pluridisciplinaire pour les Études sur les Amériques à Toulouse is located at the University Toulouse - Jean Jaurès and works on the American continent, particularly on the Latin American cultural area.

Since its creation in 1985, the IPEAT has been working on the dynamism of Latin Americanism in Toulouse thanks to a documentary collection, the CEDOCAL, a team of multidisciplinary Latin Americanists (anthropology, literature, history, geography, sociology), international partnerships, two masters degrees (research and professional) on the Americas and two journals: ORDA, Ordinaire des Amériques and Caravelle.

In 2010, the Institute opened itself to North America by developing reflections and research on trans-American exchanges.
