

Government of the City of Buenos Aires

The Ministry of Social Development of the City of Buenos Aires, through the network "En todo estás Vos", aims to ensure equal opportunities, social inclusion, and respond effectively to social emergency situations. Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is a programme of the Civil Society Strengthening General Department within the Ministry of Social Development. The Ministry's main objective is to create and consolidate a space for articulation between: companies, organizations that unite them, the areas of government working on social issues, and Civil Society Organizations, through the development of channels to facilitate mutual cooperation.
