

Entrepreneurial Council for Sustainable Development (CEDES)

The Business Council for Sustainable Development (CEDES) was established in Bolivia in 2003 as a non-profit foundation. The members of this foundation are a set of highly recognized companies in Bolivia.

The CEDES seeks to improve the actual quality of life and that of the future generations. To do this aims to relate social responsibility, environmental protection and economic prosperity, through the joint action of the State, civil society and the private sector.

CEDES's main CSR lines of action are:

- Sowing Gas Project
- Inclusive Business
- Efficient Kitchens
- "Feria a la Inversa"
- CSR Guide
