

Secretary of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation

In relation to CSR the Secretary, along with other Institutions, seeks to define a regional strategy proposal on social responsibility and to build public-private partnerships that contribute to the prevention of social violence within the framework of the Regional Strategy for Central America (ESCA). At the same time, aims to conduct a good practices mapping and a proposed model of cooperation. The objective is to structure programs and actions at the regional level which encourage the business sector involvement in social prevention of violence and crime that especially affects children, adolescents, youth and women.
