

Euro-American Association of Economic Development Studies

Our Association promotes communication among European and American countries in the field of economic development studies as well as international cooperation with other areas. For that purpose we publish reports, books and two journals: AEID and RSES, indexed in Econ-Lit, SCOPUS, IBSS-ProQuest and other selected indexes. We publish two Blogs of international development, with short reports on OCDE, Latin America and World: one in English and another one in Spanish.
