

Consejo de Directores de Carreteras de Iberia e Iberoamérica

The Council of Directors of Iberia and Ibero-America (DIRCAIBEA) is a forum that brings together the administration of the roads of the region to exchange experiences and knowledge on road infrastructure.

Since its foundation, DIRCAIBEA's Council has strengthened links between member countries in the areas of infrastructure and road transport, in order to Promote cooperation between the road administrations of Iberia and Ibero-America, fostering links between those responsible for them.

Improve the technical level of the administrations through the exchange of experiences and knowledge transfer.

Serve as a platform for the collegiate representation of the road administrations of Iberia and Latin America before other international organizations and institutions.

To promote the use of two Iberian languages (Spanish and Portuguese) in international forums on transport and road infrastructure.
